MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Bush v. City of New York, et al., 07 Civ. 4019; Brewster v. City of New York, et al., 07 Civ. 4016; Dublin v. City of New York, et al., 07 Civ. 4017

Dear Judge Patterson:

We jointly write on behalf of the parties to advise the Court of the status of our efforts to finalize the settlements in the above-referenced actions. We are in the process of executing the documents necessary to effectuate the parties' agreements. However, Corporation Counsel has informed us that it typically takes 60 to 90 days to remit payment once the executed documents are submitted to the City Comptroller. Accordingly, we request that the Court hold the pending motions to dismiss in abeyance for an additional 120 days while the parties finalize their settlements.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Michelle H. Schott

cc: Deborah Dorfman, Esq.

application denied.
The cases will be withheld and closed subject to plaintiff's right to reopen ~~an~~ for good cause shown if payment has not been received within 90 days of the court's order approving the settlement. so ordered
